The Stanleys of Cranberry Isles and Other Colorful Characters.

Identifier: 15377

Title: The Stanleys of Cranberry Isles and Other Colorful Characters.

Type: Publication, Book

Subject: People

Places, Island

Description: Historian, Genealogist, Musician, Boat Builder, Author, Raconteur - there is only one Ralph Stanley. Ralph bears many titles and awards, but for the Southwest Harbor Public Library he is, most of all, a friend.

Ralph started using the library as a child and continued as an adult, graduated to Trustee, to President of the Trustees, and, in 2013, became our first Trustee Emeritus. Since 2007 he has spent hundreds of hours patiently identifying people, places and vessels in the Digital Archive. He gave the library his vast collection of photographs, The Ralph Warren Stanley Collection, in 2014.

For years he has told us stories of his family, friends and adventures on Mount Desert Island. Archivists have written down almost every word and fact a treasure for the collection and for the community.

This is his chef doeuvre, The Stanleys of Cranberry Islesand Other Colorful Characters, Ralphs own story, based on his own research and in his own words.

To purchase the print version of this book please contact the Southwest Harbor Public Library at archivist@swhplibrary.org or (207) 244-7065.

Painting Islands - Uniting Community with Art

Identifier: 14918

Title: Painting Islands - Uniting Community with Art

Type: Set

Subject: Places, Island

Description: This personal art project of Howie Motenko used participatory art and the photographic technique of light painting on all the 15 year-round Maine Islands. His idea was to assemble a team of resident island volunteers who, wielding flashlights, would paint an iconic scene with light while he created a long-exposure photograph. Howie partnered with the Maine Seacoast Mission and the Island Institute as a conduit to begin a dialogue with each local island community and travel support to each of the islands during the shoot. The project kicked off in May of 2014.

The project is funded in part by the Maine Arts Commission, an independent state agency supported by the National Endowment for the Arts.

Description: The earliest settlers on Sutton's Island were Joseph Lancaster of Sullivan and Isaac Richardson, son of James Richardson of Mount Desert.

William and Joseph Moore were early settlers, also. William later moved to Bear Island and was the first keeper of the Bear Island light. Sutton, from whom the island now takes its name, was, perhaps, a squatter. It is thought that he removed to the Maritime Provinces. - Mount Desert, A History by George E. Street, Edited by Samuel A. Eliot, Houghton, Mifflin and Company, 1905.

Porcupine Islands

Identifier: 3658

Title: Porcupine Islands

Type: Reference

Subject: Places, Island

Description: The Porcupine Islands, named for their resemblance to a group of porcupines, in Frenchman Bay off the coast of Bar Harbor. The islands are Sheep Porcupine Island, Burnt Porcupine Island, Long Porcupine Island and Bald Porcupine Island.

The islands are uninhabited and owned by Acadia National Park. They are nesting areas for a number of sea birds and access to some islands is restricted during nesting season.

The islands get their distinctive shape from their formation as they were carved by retreating glaciers moving north to south. This created the gentle slope on the north side with a sharp drop off in the south end.

Homesick For That Place: Ruth Moore Writes About Maine

Identifier: 3457

Title: Homesick For That Place: Ruth Moore Writes About Maine

Type: Publication, Literary, Article

Subject: People

Places, Island

Description: The lives of authors Ruth Moore and Eleanor Ruth Mayo were their own, but their private lives and the lives they led on Mount Desert Island, were so intertwined that archivists find it difficult to divide documents, stories and photographs between them. It is for this reason that this Item exists in the database. It ties together other Items that relate more to both women than to either as an individual.

Homesick For That Place: Ruth Moore Writes About Maine by Jennifer Craig Pixley is so well conceived that it may be recommended to those who are interested in Ruth and Eleanor above many other works, but there is much to be learned from everything included here.
