"The house on the south corner of the Shore Road and the one leading up toward the church, has been built on the site of one built by Aaron Wescott and bought by Capt. Benjamin Spurling Moore [1800-1843] between 1826 and 1828. Capt. Moore and his family made it their home and after he was lost at sea in 1847 his family continued to live there and it finally became the property of his granddaughter, who married Frank Smith and he built the present house." - "Traditions and Records of Southwest Harbor and Somesville, Mount Desert Island, Maine" by Mrs. Seth S. Thornton, 1938, p. 192.

Title: Henry R. Hinckley Company

Manset Boat Yard

Hinckely Company

Hinckley Yachts

Type: Reference

Subject: Businesses, Boatbuilding Business

Description: The Hinckley Company started in 1928 as the Manset Boatyard in Southwest Harbor, Maine. Henry R. Hinckleys focus was on servicing the local lobster boats as well as the yachts of summer residents on Mt. Desert Island. Today Hinckley builds boats at its production facilities in Trenton, Maine, but the original Manset yard is at the heart of the Hinckley legend. Today it ranks as a world class service facility.
