This amazing work, a combination of memoir, scientific history and love letter to Maine, is the very personal history of the building of a cottage on Mount Desert Island and the building of an academic legacy. Anne Brimley Gould is a unique person, an accomplished scientist, and a dear friend to all adults and children who know and love her. She has built her own creative and adventurous life. Sue Goodwin, her lab assistant and good friend, helps her to put all the pieces together. - CRM
